VOCE MEDIA

Perception meets reality. From the moment when a made-to-order selection is made, to choosing the most convenient method of payment, to the interactive messaging, to the delivery of a delicious finished product, VOCE MEDIA delivers a positive consumer experience.

Up to 32 possible selections-

VOCE MEDIA serves barista style specialty beverages that broaden appeal to Gen Y consumers, while building consumption beyond the traditional morning day part.

VOCE MEDIA increases daily use. Hot beverages are an essential part of our lives. They provide refreshment, enjoyment and comfort. They wake us up, keep us going, stimulate good conversation and fulfill our occasional desire for indulgence. It's a very personal process and that's why the VOCE MEDIA ATM user interface puts the consumer in control. Choose from up to 32 selections; customise to taste with the amount of sugar or creamer to brew a drink specific to your taste. We'll even give you a 4-digit PIN to order your custom drink on ensuing visits. VOCE MEDIA is a destination for great drinks, conveniently and consistently served.

We're serving the highest quality espresso from the patented CoEx™ brewer.

With the same brewing process as equipment used in the high end coffee retail channel, the VOCE MEDIA finished drink profile mirrors all of the important attributes of consistency, taste, aroma, color and appearance.

CoEx brewer delivers high quality coffee selections, fitted in Roast & Ground and Bean to Cup models. Flexible system allows variable coffee (6 to 10 grams) and water doses across all drinks. High pressure (10bar) for espresso and espresso based beverages, Cappuccino, Latte Mocha and long black selections Serving sizes 7, 9 and 12 ounces.

Customize idle screen displays to build appetite appeal, promote, educate and personalize. Images below are standard.
